Subject: telework during bart strike?

Hi Dave,

Are you okay with me teleworking tomorrow (Tuesday)? I have a bunch of Hawaii permit reviews to do, including Sand Island, which will probably take me more than one day to review (since that was the case with Honouliuli). On Friday, I double-checked permits that Hawaii issued final during the shutdown, and got an update from Darryl on progress. Would you like me to copy you on comments I send Hawaii? I will be available by phone for meetings, including staff meeting tomorrow. What are your thoughts? This BART strike is really a mess.

-Elizabeth
